WARREN-WENTWORTH AMBULANCE SERVICE, INC.

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW CAREFULLY.

Warren-Wentworth Ambulance Service, Inc. ("WWAS") is required by law to maintain the privacy of certain confidential health care information, known as Protected Health Information or PHI, and to provide you with a notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your PHI. WWAS is also required to abide by the terms of the version of this notice currently in effect.

1. Uses and Disclosures of PHI:

WWAS may use PHI for the purposes of treatment, payment and healthcare operations, in most cases without your written permission. Examples of our use of your PHI:

For Treatment: This includes such things as obtaining verbal and written information about your medical condition and treatment from you as well as from others, such as doctors and nurses who give orders to allow us to provide treatment to you. We may give your PHI to other healthcare providers involved in your treatment and may transfer your PHI via radio or telephone to the hospital or dispatch center.

For Payment: This includes any activities we must undertake to get reimbursed for the services we provide to you, including such things as submitting bills to insurance companies, making medical necessity determinations, and collecting outstanding accounts.

For Healthcare Operations: This includes such things as Quality Assessment (QA)/Quality Improvement (QI), licensing and training programs to ensure that our personnel meet our standards of care and follow established policies and procedures, as well as certain other management functions.

Reminders for Scheduled Transports: We may also contact you to provide you with a reminder of any scheduled appointments for non-emergency ambulance and medical transportation.

Use and Disclosure of PHI WITHOUT your Authorization

WWAS is permitted to use your PHI without your written authorization, or opportunity to object in certain situation, and unless prohibited by a more stringent state law, including:

- For the treatment, payment, or healthcare operation activities of another healthcare provider who treats you;
- For healthcare and legal compliance activities;
- To a family member, other relative, or close personal friend or other individual involved in your care if we obtain your verbal agreement to do so or if we give you an opportunity to object to such a disclosure and you do not raise an objection, and in certain other circumstances where we are unable to obtain your agreement and believe the disclosure is in your best interests;

- To a public health authority in certain situations as required by law (such as to report abuse, neglect, or domestic violence);
- For health oversight activities including audits or government investigations, inspections, disciplinary proceedings, and other administrative or judicial actions undertaken by the government (or their contractors) by law to oversee the healthcare system;
- For judicial and administrative proceedings as required by a court or administrative order, or in some cases in response to a subpoena or other legal process;
- For law enforcement activities in limited situations, such as when responding to a warrant;
- For military, national defense and security, and other special government functions;
- To avert a serious threat to the health and safety of a person or the public at large;
- For workers' compensation purposes, and in compliance with workers' compensation laws;
- To coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors for identifying a deceased person, determining cause of death, and/or carrying on their duties as authorized by law;
- If you are an organ donor, we may release health information to organizations that handle organ procurement, organ, eye, or tissue transplantation, or to an organ donation bank, as necessary to facilitate organ donation and transplantation;
- For research projects, but this will be subject to strict oversight and approvals;
- We may also use or disclose health information about you in a way that does not personally identify you or reveal who you are.

Any other use or disclosure of PHI, other than those listed above only will be made with your written authorization. You may revoke your authorization at any time, in writing, except to the extent that we have already used or disclosed medical information in reliance on that authorization.

Patient Rights:

As a patient, you have a number of rights with respect to your PHI including:

1. The Right to Access, Copy, Or Inspect Your PHI

This means you may inspect and copy most of the medical information about you that we maintain. We will normally provide you with access to this information within 30 days of your request. We may also charge you a reasonable fee for you to copy any medical information that you have the right to access. In limited circumstances, we may deny you access to your medical information, and you may appeal certain types of denials. We have available forms to request access to your PHI and we will provide a written response if we deny you access and let you know your appeal rights. You also have the right to receive confidential communications of your PHI. If you wish to inspect and copy your medical information, you should contact our HIPAA Compliance Officer.

6. The Right to Amend Your PHI

You have the right to ask us to amend written medical information that we may have about you. We will generally amend your information within 60 days of your request and will notify you when we have amended the information. We are permitted by law to deny your request to amend your medical information, only in certain circumstances, like when we believe the information you have asked us to amend is correct. If you wish to request that we amend
